Who Are We?

Peeler Group International is an Executive Protection company dedicated to Supporting Our Client's Success, Safety and Security – So They May Live Their Best Life. We specialize in executive protection services for several industries.

Founded in 1995, Peeler Group International maintains offices in Arizona, Florida, Illinois, Nevada, and New York, with managed partner offices located internationally.

Job Requirements & Description

Candidates should have completed college degree work, with a preference for an advanced degree.

You should be in good overall physical, mental, and emotional condition, have a reputation as a team player, and be willing to work long hours with diverse schedules.

Applicants must have strong oral and written communication skills focusing on listening and observation, allowing them to perform their work and represent Peeler Group International and our client appropriately. Additionally, you must have strong interpersonal skills and the ability to negotiate conflict tactfully. Executive Protection Drivers must possess the ability to interact with others within a corporate environment at all levels and demonstrate leadership, teamwork, with increased organizational skills.

Our Executive Protection Driver provides safe and secure transportation to C-Suite Leaders for our client in Las Vegas, Nevada.

As an Embedded Associate to our client, you are responsible for supporting the client and the personal protection and safety of the Principals and their staff traveling within our company-owned vehicle.

Our Associates work independently and require a high level of emotional maturity and intelligence - you must be a critical thinker.

Executive Protection Drivers often work overtime (OT), nights, holidays, and weekends. EP Drivers may support the client in a Close Protection Practitioner capacity requiring regional travel domestically and overseas based on the client's travel needs and expectations.
